

THE UNIVERSITY OF TSUKUBA – CENTER FOR EDUCATION OF GLOBAL COMMUNICATION

THE FIRST FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PANEL DISCUSSION: WHAT DOESN'T WORK IN CLASS?

8 November, 2016

9:30-11:30am CA304

Professor Toshinobu Usuyama, head of the Foreign Language Education Division at CEGLOC introduced this event which consisted of two parts.

Part I: Panel discussion. Panelists took turns presenting an issue they were faced with in their language classes and some of the solutions they have tried to implement.

Part II: Group work. After the coffee break panelists broke into groups with 3 or 4 members of the audience and furthered the discussion to come up with solutions and suggestions. A secretary in each group recorded the ideas and wrote up a one page summary to be published in the institution's journal.
