

Workshop on Online Teaching: Tips and Sharing Experience

Date: December 6, 2021 (Monday)

Time: 9:30 - 11:05

We all got experienced in giving online classes.

Some things go well, other things we are still struggling with.

This workshop tackles some solvable remaining problems with online teaching: focusing on synchronous teaching, we offer tips on how to use online teaching tools and would also like to invite you to share your experience.

This event is limited to persons affiliated with the University of Tsukuba.

9:30 Manaba: Benefits and limitations in using manaba
(Bruno Jactat: learn & share)

9:55 Mentimeter: Using Mentimeter to boost student engagement
(Murod Ismailov: learn & apply)

10:20 Zoom: Hints on how to create an interactive atmosphere
(Markus Rude: learn & share)

10:45 Experience sharing: Share your expertise, concerns, and successes
(Ruth Vanbaelen: share)

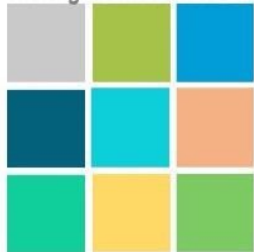

11:05 End

For our planning, please send us your specific issues (we will try to incorporate them in the workshop), and/or register (with the QR code or the link below), by November 29.

We will send you the ZOOM link by December 3.

Of course, you are free to attend just partially (in that case, please join 2-3 min before a workshop starts).

sharing methods & ideas

Teaching & Research

CEGLOC FD Committee

The CEGLOC FD Committee
in collaboration with the BPGI

BACHELOR'S PROGRAM
IN GLOBAL ISSUES

<https://bit.ly/3C3fKJe>